Did you know...

...that when we celebrate the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on September 14, we will celebrate at 5:00 p.m. with Divine Liturgy following the Maronite Catholic Rite? Our friends from the Maronite Catholic Church and the Syro Malabar Catholic Church, as well as others, will join us. These Rites are Catholic Rites in union with Rome, and therefore Roman Catholics can receive Eucharist and the celebration of this liturgy does fulfil the Sunday Mass obligation.

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

If you or someone you know has no church home, or is attending Annunciation but is not Catholic, consider extending an invitation to this individual to give some thought to becoming Catholic. If you or someone you know is interested in finding out more about the possibility of becoming Catholic, please contact Father Grogan or Dr. Sandi Chakeres at the Parish Office, 861-1295.

Music News

If you're new to the parish and would like to be involved or if you've been in the parish for years and have thought about getting involved in the music at Annunciation now is a good time to begin. Regular choir practice will begin again on Tuesday, September 3rd, at 7PM (a new time for those who have been here). The choir sings generally three Sundays per month and on Holy Days. We welcome people in all sections (soprano, alto, tenor, bass) as well as instrumentalists: winds, brass, strings, and percussion. We do all styles of Catholic music from every era and from all parts of the globe but with, perhaps, a little more of an emphasis on classical and traditional styles. Having some experience is a benefit but it is possible to start with no experience and I'm happy to work extra with people to bring beginners up to speed. Contact me at musicdirector@annunciationbvmparish.org or by phone at 513-861-1295. Steve McManaman, Music Director
